OLD ENGLAND:
OR,
The CONSTITUTIONAL JOURNAL.

By JEFFREY BROADBOTTOM, of Covent-Garden, Esq;

SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 1744. [N°. 79.]

The following Letter was tranſmitted to our Printer ſome time ago, but was miſlaid: We think it can never come more ſeaſonably before the Public than at preſent.

IT was to prevent private Evils, and to promote a publick Good, that Men firſt entered into Society; for that Reaſon were Laws framed, and Governors appointed to take Care of the Execution of them: When Governors ceaſe to perform this Office faithfully, and to promote the public Good, they infringe their Part of the original Contract, and annul that of the People; they become Tyrants and Rebels, and ſhould be treated as ſuch: To anticipate Accidents of that Sort, many wiſe Inſtitutions have been deviſed by different Lawgivers, and Experience in After-Times has refined upon them; the Government, under which we live, ſeems to be an happy Mixture of all; it ſtates the Duties of King and of Subject upon the moſt equal Footing, and conſiſts in preſerving the Liberties and Property of each Individual diſtinct and entire from the Encroachments of every other: No Law can be impoſed upon us, but by our own Conſents; no Perſon can be tried for any alledged Crime, but by that Law; nor can he be found guilty but by the Mouths of his Neighbours and Fellows; to this Law the pooreſt Peaſant can have Recourſe againſt the moſt powerful Peer for the Recovery of what is his Due, and this Law, while he obeys it, inſures him in the Poſſeſſion of it, in ſpite even of Kings themſelves.——Happy that King, who makes it his Buſineſs to obſerve and to maintain ſo wiſe a Conſtitution! Unhappy he, who will break thro' it to his own Deſtruction!

MANKIND was not created for Kings to govern, but they themſelves created Kings to govern them: 'Tis from this Source that Princes derive their Power, and they are accountable to their Conſtituents for the Management of it; they are the Stewards of the People; they are the Shepherds, who ſhould defend their Flock from the Wolf, and not butcher it themſelves. What ſhall we think of a King, that would deſtroy and appropriate to himſelf the moſt valuable Depoſitum of his Subjects, their Liberties, and that would deſire rather their Fear than their Love? Perhaps he may attain his Wiſh, and be a Terror to the Slaves, whom he has made: He is feared indeed, but at the ſame Time he is hated and abhorred, and with good Reaſon dreads his People more, than he is dreaded by them.——It is better to be one in a free Nation, than to reign over a whole World of Slaves.——Every Freeman is a Prince.

By the antient Laws of Egypt the King was more ſubjected unto them than any of the other Subjects; all his Actions and Behaviour were to be regulated thereby; his very Diet was particularly ſpecified, both with Regard to Quantity and Quality, and the Day was laid out for him, to be employed in the different Duties of his Office: The Morning was allotted for reading Petitions, Complaints, and Letters, and for examining into, and informing himſelf of the Affairs, that were to come under his Deciſion that Day; then he proceeded to the Temple, attended by all his Court, where the Prieſt in the moſt ſolemn Manner prayed, that the Gods would grant their beſt Bleſſings unto the King, for being religious, affable, moderate, liberal, magnanimous, ſincere, and an Enemy to Lies and Flattery, for keeping ſo ſteady a Controul over his Paſſions, for governing his People with Clemency and Juſtice, and making the Law the Rule of his Actions, and for puniſhing below Deſert and rewarding above it; then they mentioned his Faults, as committed thro' Ignorance or Surprize, and curſed and imprecated the Wrath of Heaven and of Earth upon the Head of all Miniſters, who ſhould be guilty of diſguiſing the Truth, of giving bad Counſel, or of turning him aſide from any of the Virtues before-named; the whole Service concluded with propoſing Examples of other great and happy Princes for his Imitation, and of ſuch as were wicked and miſerable, that he might avoid falling into their Miſtakes and Errors.——This was a very bold, and, at the ſame Time, a polite Way of inſtructing them in their Duty, of informing them what they ſhould be, and of reprehending their Faults. Much indebted is that King unto him, who has Courage and Prudence to uſe the ſame Method, and wiſe is he, who will profit by it.

In China there is a large Cheſt ſituated in a public Place, into which, by a Slit in the Top, every Man is allowed to throw his Account of what paſſes in the Empire, and his Reflections upon it: This is never opened while any of that Family are upon the Throne, leſt Hopes or Fears ſhould biaſs the Truth of their Annals; for out of theſe looſe Leaves the Hiſtory of the preceeding Race is formed, and the Actions and Conduct of each Emperor praiſed, or blamed, as, upon an impartial Examination of theſe Memoirs, they are found to deſerve. In Europe, tho' Hiſtorians may be hired to commend a wicked King and to extoll his Wiſdom, yet even ſo can they not impoſe upon Poſterity; the Fraud is at laſt detected, and his Folly and evil Meaſures expoſed to the Ridicule of the World.

Let us now conſider what Qualities are requiſite for the juſt Execution of the Regal Office, ſo as to acquire the univerſal Eſteem and Applauſe of all Ages: Let us analize the Monarch, and take him in his firſt Situation, as a Prince, and then purſue him thro' his future Advancement.——A good Prince, with regard to his private Life, is an honeſt Man, and a Man of Honour: Good-nature diſplays itſelf in his Infant Mind before all other Diſpoſitions, and grows up with it, till it ſettles at laſt in a perfect Humanity: His tender Heart ſympathizes with every unhappy Sufferer, and nothing dilates it with ſo much Joy, as the Proſperity and Succeſs of the People: He is affable and generous; Merit, in whatever Situation it appears, is ſure of pleaſing; and Virtue in Diſtreſs fails not of that Relief from him, which its Modeſty will not allow it to beg: His high Quality only raiſes him above Offences; his Complaiſance would place each on the ſame Level with himſelf, and rather than not have an Opportunity to exerciſe his Benevolence, his Condeſcenſion, without debaſing, brings him down to their Capacity; he never enjoys more Satisfaction than in Acts of Goodneſs: Flattery, which always attends the Great, might have perhaps debauched his innate Bounty, had not a ſincere Love of Truth baffled all its Attempts; he knows that he was born to reign over a Free People, that is (whatever Gloſſes Sycophants may put upon the Words) to ſerve them for their Good: In order to fit him for this great Office, he ſets himſelf to ſtudy the Nature of that Conſtitution, wherein he is to bear ſo conſiderable a Share; he finds that Liberty is the main End at which it aims, and the Effect which all its Laws and Cuſtoms are calculated to produce; he feels the Beauty and Coherence of the whole Syſtem working powerfully in his own Breaſt; he loves it, and becomes a Votary himſelf to that, which ſelfiſh Courtiers would ſet him at Variance with: He thinks it unworthy the firſt Subject of a free Nation to live in a ſervile Dependance, and would not buy a Crown at the Price of his Freedom.——When his own Fortunes and the Favour of the People raiſe him to the Dignity which he merits, his Opinions are not thereby altered; that Liberty he valued ſo much in himſelf before, he ſtill values ſo much, that he believes he cannot give, nor his People receive a more grateful Preſent: He looks upon it as his Glory to make them happy; for this Reaſon he conſults them in all Caſes, and is entirely directed by their Advice; he places his Confidence in the People, and not in an over-grown Miniſter, with his Chain of Hirelings, who may have different Intereſts from the People, and ſo be induced to betray both the People and him, for there is ſo cloſe a Connection betwixt them, that it is impoſſible to do the one without doing the other alſo: He has his more particular Friends and Favourites indeed, but he is directed in his Choice by Deſert, Moderation, Public Spirit, and Affinity of Temper; he admits none of his Purveyors for his more youthful Pleaſures into his Councils, nor does he make any other Diſtinction of Parties, than Patriots and Knaves; they, that are not the firſt, muſt be the other, whatever Pretences they may trump up of Zeal for his Service; their Love for their Country is the unerring Standard by which he judges of them: He neither buys Elections nor Votes, ſo that he is ſure his Parliaments are compoſed of Men of Worth and Integrity, and who can have nothing elſe in their Eye but the Common-weal. He claims no Prerogative but that of doing Good, and never exerts it, but his Subjects thank him for it; if any other Privileges have been affected by his Predeceſſors to the Hurt of his People, he gives them up without being asked; as he is certain, that no Nation ever granted any Thing deſignedly for their own Hurt, ſo he laughs at the Jure Divino Right, which a corrupt Clergy and falſe Politicians aſſert to be inherent in Kings. If his People out of Gratitude and Affection grant him an exorbitant Revenue, he takes only what his Neceſſities demand, and tho' others before him have found Uſes for it all, returns the Overplus with Thanks: He can never think himſelf poor, ſo long as the Nation is rich, and he enjoys their good Will; in that, under GOD, does he repoſe all his Truſt of Security; he cannot ſo much as bear the Shadow of a Standing Army; the Hearts of his Subjects are his beſt Defence. He encourages a free Trade by allowing no Monopolies, by laying as few Taxes as poſſible upon neceſſary [illegible] ties, and by levying them in the eaſie[illegible] He is as liberal of his own privy Pu[illegible] frugal of the Public Money; he expe[illegible] it in Bribes, in ſecret Services, in uſe[illegible] or in vain Pomp and Grandeur; h[illegible] conſiſts in promoting Merit only, and [illegible] makes the moſt brilliant Figure in Eu[illegible] filled with ſuch Perſons; his Kingdom follows his Example; all is plain, but all is great; the Senate and People of Rome never made a more venerable Appearance: He is the Father of his Country, and his Subjects are dutiful Children; not a Man of them but would die for him in his Neceſſity: He is not more reſpected at home, than feared abroad, while he lives; when the Prayers of a whole Iſland can no longer divert the fatal Stroke of Death, he leaves them all in Tears, and exchanges the moſt glorious Crown on Earth for one ſtill more glorious: His Name laſts to all Generations, as a noble Pattern for ſucceeding Monarchs, and eternal Liberty, eſtabliſhed by his wiſe and generous Counſels, endears him as much to Intire Poſterity, as to his own Age; he is alike the Admiration and Adoration of both.

GERMANY.

Vienna, July 22. The Hungarian Nation has juſt ſent a Deputation to the Queen, to invite her to come this Summer to Presbourg, to the End that her Majeſty may receive in Perſon ſome Overtures of the laſt Importance, which the Palatine and great Lords have reſolved to make her. Hague, Auguſt 1. Our laſt Letters from Paris bring the following Advices, viz. That Cardinal Tencin has ſent the King for his Approbation a very important Memorial, in Anſwer to the Reſcript publiſhed by the Czarina againſt the Conduct of the Marquis de la Chetardie; and by what his Eminence has therein ſaid, it appears, that the Court of France is ſo pick'd at the Proceeding of the Czarina, in reſpect to that Miniſter, that it's very much queſtioned whether the Marquis de la Chetardie will be diſgraced by the King, or whether his Majeſty will ſend another Miniſter into Ruſſia.

SPAIN.

Madrid, July 14. Letters which the Court has receiv'd from the Havanna of the 6th of May laſt bring, that a new Man of War of ſixty Guns was equipping there with all Expedition; and as ſoon as was ready Admiral de Torres would ſail for Europe with his Squadron, which would then conſiſt of twelve Ships of the Line.

LOW COUNTRIES.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 3. The whole Army of the Allies paſſed the Scheld on Friday, it conſiſts of near 70,000 Men of the fineſt Troops in the World, and full of Spirits. It is directing its March towards the French Lines and Entrenchments. The Soldiers have had Bread given them for four Days. If their Lines are at all capable of being attacked, we ſhall attack them. We are ſuperior to them by more than 20,000 Men, and yet we expect 5 or 6000 more. If they cannot be attack'd without riſking too much, the Siege of Maubeuge may poſſibly be undertaken; this Week will determine the Affair. If Duke d'Aremberg has, as it's ſaid, Carte Blanche, as well as Marſhal Saxe, the Entrenchments will certainly be attacked, and probably forced.

And as the several Passages in the former Impressions, that have been charged with being obscure and ambiguous, are in these cleared up and explained, there will be no more Alterations or Additions made to them.

These Editions contain some further and surprizing Instances of the Mischiefs by that filthy, sinful Commerce with one self, which is so notoriously practised, as well by the Adult as Youth, Women as Men, Married as Single, to the weakning their Generative Faculties, and hindering Procreation, as their Letters of Complaint to the Author herein inserted, shew.

And, amongst others, a curious Letter from a Lady, with his Answer to it, concerning the Use and Abuse of the Marriage Bed; together with diver Candid and other Letters from both Sexes, of some secret unnatural Enormancies, necessary to be known both by the married and single of each Sex.

To which is added,

A Curious PIECE translated out of the Latin, from L. S. SCHMEDTER, as it is inserted in the Acta Lipsiensia; concerning the Return of the Seed into the Mass of Blood; well worth the Perusal of Physicians, Surgeons, Anatomists, and all others of Art and Curiosity.

A very grave and learned Divine and Physician having perused this Discourse, before it went to the Press, returned it with his Opinion of it in these Words:

'This little Book ought to be read by all Sorts of People, of both Sexes, of what Age, Degree, Profession, or Condition soever, guilty or not guilty of the Sin declaimed against in it.'

Cod. l. 5 de Famil.

Printed for M. Cooper, at the Globe in Pater-noster-Row.

The Incomparable POWDER for Cleaning the TEETH,

Has withstood, by its most excellent and known Virtues, the Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; therefore pray take Notice, that the only true, effectual, and Original Powder, is sold no where else, but as mention'd below.

IT has given surprising Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England, near 40 Years last past, that it hath been published, and vast Quantities of it still continue to be sold.

It is sold only at Mrs Wharton's Toyshop, the Blue-coat Boy, near the Royal Exchange in Cornhill; and at Mrs Markham's Great Toyshop the Seven Stars, now (since she is remov'd) directly over against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and no where else in England, at 1 s. each Box.

N. B. Pray mind you send to the right Place; for the Shop Mrs Markham is remov'd from has also got the Seven Stars for its Sign.

At once using it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, tho' ever so black or Yellow before, and effectually preserves them from rotting or decaying, continuing them sound to exceeding old Age. It wonderfully cures the Scurvy in the Gums, prevents Rheum or Defluxion, kills the Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-ach. It admirably fastens the Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine, of a pleasant and grateful Scent, and in Virtue far exceeds any Thing ever yet found out for those Purposes.

The LIPSALVE,

Which is so much esteem'd, and of so many Years large Experience, and whose Virtues vastly exceed any of the many Counterfeits, since its first Publication, is sold at the same Places 1 s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heals them, though never so rough or chapt; prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes them delicately soft and smooth, giving them a becoming ruby-round Colour; the Fragancy of its Odour also renders the Breath fine and sweet, and it may be eaten for its Safety.

The True Cordial QUINTESSENCE of VIPERS, the most Noble and Grand Preparation in the whole Materia Medica, for the real, substantial Cure of Impotency in Men, and Barrenness in Women; and is vastly preferable to Viper Wine, or any other Preparation of Vipers whatever, as being replete with the full and whole Virtues of them.

A Few Drops of it only, gives such a generous Warmth, and so speedily delights the Vital and Animal Spirits, Senses, and Nerves, as soon to shew what it will do upon a little Continuance of it, for it not only promotes, and prompts to a Desire, but also furnishes proper Matter, for the Support and Establishment of a true lasting Love nation and Power.

By this Means it answers the End as well of Food as Physick; nor is there any thing in Nature besides, that can in that Respect come up to it considering that it universally mortifies and restores in all the Declensions of Desire and Vigour, without the least hurting the Vessels, or stimulating the Parts, as most other Medicines for these Purposes do: And tho' it be a Maxim in Physick, that since CERERE & BACCHO FRIGET VENUS, that is, in effect, it is sufficiently nutritious as to want no Assistance that Way, not but it must be all wish, that good Eating and Drinking with it, could but in some Degree, at least as an Auxiliary contribute to its Efficacy.

Nor does it only furnish Matter and create Desire, but also gives Power (as it braces up and corroborates the Nerves) and gives an electrick Springiness to the Muscular Fibres in Men, and corrects, cleanses, and comforts the Uterus or Womb in Women, the Lankness and Laxity of the former, and the Fountain Coldness, or Obstruction of the latter, being more the Cause of Impotency or Infertility, in the one Sex, and Indifferency or Sterility in the other than any Thing else besides; and that it is Balsamick, and greatly Restorative, is confirmed by long Experience, and we have many Instances in Physical Writings, of Persons arriving to a healthful old Age, as well as recover'd from deplorable Decays and Weaknesses, by a continued Use of the common Preparations of Vipers, which this Quintessence by being of vastly more Efficacy, brings about in a Quarter of the Time, and with the Tenth Part of the Quantity.

Those who but once try it, will so pleasantly experience its nutritive quickening Powers, in exhilerating the Heart reviving the Spirits, comforting the Vitals, circulating the Juice, and recreating and renovating, as it were the whole Man, that they will never be without it; for it is such a perfect Help, in Time of Need, as that on the taking then but a Dose or two more of it than ordinary, it will so instantaneously animate the dull inactive Spirit, and rouze up and actuate the feigntly enfeebled Faculties, in both Sexes, as to excite and capacitate where it could hardly be expected and at the same Time seldom fails to render that conjugal Intercourse Prolifick, Price Half a Guinea the Bottle.

Mr. West, Goldsmith, who us'd to sell these Bottles, being lately dead it is now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnson a Baker, at the Seven Stars in Vere Street, Clare-Market, sealed up, with Directions (for any Messenger) upon asking for only a Bottle of Quintessence.

ANTISYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet, or Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings-out, and all other the most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulnesses of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Antisyphilicon is but six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient, in most Cases, to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-Shop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever afflicted with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, does once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides intirely curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearance they allutedly and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diseases.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient sprightly, lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

To all Gentlemen, Builders, and Others.

A Treatise of the Diseases of the HEAD, BRAIN, and NERVES, more especially of the Palsy, Appoplexy, Lethargy, Epilepsy, Convulsions, Cramp, Frenzy, Vertigo, Megrim, inveterate Head-ach, &c. with Directions for their thorough Cure, and how these and many other deplorable Nervous Distempers may be assuredly prevented, as well as certainly cur'd, and consequently many Lives saved by the Medicines therein, in English, prescribed, without the least Reserve. To which is subjoined,

A Discourse of MELANCHOLY in Men, and VAPOURS in Women; explaining the whole Train of Symptoms, various Degrees, and real Cause of those wretched Maladies; and discovering a short and most certain Method of Cure, by safe and easy Remedies therein also candidly prescribed, and by which Persons of either Sex, who are unhappily affected with Melancholy or Vapours, may absolutely cure themselves of those pernicious Distempers in a short Time, without any Fatigue or Disorder. By a Physician.

London, Printed and Sold by the Author's Appointment, only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard, in the Minories. Price bound 2s.

The so-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, how ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Crofs-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange, in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions at large.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutions, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumptions which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the most stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weakness of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten time, as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will be complete Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely extirpated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.

Dr. R. NELSON's long-experienced COMPOUND, or never-failing Anti-Venereal Electuary, the like of which is not to be met with,

FOR the true Cure of fresh Veneral Injuries, (and all the lurking Relicks or Remains of old ones) how virulent or obstinate soever they may be; for it immediately puts a Stop to their Progress, and entirely, and, as it were, instantly, ferrets out, and carries off all the filthy poisonous Infection, wears away the various Symptoms, and, by Degrees cleanses off the Running, and heals and strengthens the Parts, sensibly and firmly, without the too common Consequences of leaving either Foulness, Gleeting, or Weakness behind. This it does in a Way so regular and gentle, both by Stool and Urine, and with a Dose, each Time, so small and pleasant (the Quantity but of a Nutmeg) that the nicest Persons are as well surprized as delighted with it, and the more as it agrees with every one's Constitution, hinders no Business, nor gives the least Suspicion to the nearest Relation.

In a very small Space of Time (living temperately) it rids away a mild CLAP, and those more severe according to their several Degrees of Malignity.

There never was, nor can be in the whole Art of Physick contrived, any Medicine or Method capable of performing the Cure more certainly, more safely, or more speedily, for it is so compleatly adapted to every Circumstance of the Infection, and so fully answers the several Intentions of curing, that it is impossible it should once fail.

But no more need to be said of it, for it will recommend itself, insomuch that no Person will ever after seek for Cure himself, or advise his Friend to any other Remedy.

Price 5s. the Tin-Pot. Prepar'd only by the Doctor, as abovesaid and left (sealed up with Directions) at Mr. Ifield's a Bookseller, at the Golden Ball between St Dunstan's Church and Chancery Lane End, Fleet-street, where it may be had by any Messenger, asking only for a 5s. Pot of the COMPOUND.

An immediate and never failing Cure for DEAFNESS, Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, &c.

BY a noble Chymical Preparation, the most excellent Medicine for this Purpose that ever was known, far exceeding all Things ever yet publish'd, or made Use of; its Virtues are beyond Expression, and cannot be truly known but by Experience: Words come short of its just Praise.

It is a certain, and, as it were, an instant Cure for Deafness, Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, from what Cause soever, or of ever so long standing, having cur'd vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes and all Ages, that have been in a Manner totally deaf, after all other Means and Medicines, external and internal, by Advice, and also by Publication, have fail'd, with the greatest Ease and Safety, and to their utmost Satisfaction and Wonder; for

In a peculiar Manner, it strengthens, softens and loosens, the Drum of the Ear, which by being dry'd or shriveled, is often the first and chief Cause of every Complaint of want of Hearing, or of Noise or Pain in the Ears, &c. to remedy all which, this noble Medicine is a true Specifick that never fails perfectly to cure all possibly curable Cases, after all other Means and Medicines have utterly fail'd, which is more than can be said of any other Thing in the whole World itself: Any Cold in the Head, or any Hurt by congeal'd Matter in the Ears, it instantly cures.

It is sold for 3s. 6d. each Bottle, by the Author's special Appointment, at Mr. Richards's Tinshop, the Sign of the Black Horse and Star, in Fleet-street, near Fleet-Market, and no where else in England.
